

BECOMING A GROWING HOME EMPLOYER PARTNER

HELP YOUR TEAM GROW
WITH QUALIFIED,
EXPERIENCED,
READY-TO-
WORK
CANDIDATES.

Growing Home is an organic urban farm and workforce development center that trains up to 80 Production Assistants each year in planting, harvesting, maintaining and selling organic produce, all transferable essential skills.

While Production Assistants spend 12 weeks on our farm and in our classroom, we assist them in finding permanent, high-quality employment. Our job seekers are pre-screened for the employer's qualifications and are ready to work.

Join us by becoming an employer partner today.

CULTIVATE YOUR NEXT GREAT EMPLOYEE

Growing Home staff only refers the most qualified of candidates for the job. We work with individuals to assess their experience, goals, and motivation to ensure that they are the right fit for your company.

As employees of our business, Production Assistants learn a variety of skills, including:

- Attention to detail & quality control
- Knowledge of organic produce
- Multitasking and prioritization
- Pace and efficiency
- Teamwork

In addition, Production Assistants learn a multitude of skills through our structured job readiness curriculum:

- Conflict management
- Customer service and hospitality
- ServSafe Food Handler's certificate
- Time management and timeliness

BENEFITS TO YOU

As an Employer Partner of Growing Home, there are multiple benefits to you and your company. We provide follow-up support for you and our graduates throughout the life of their employment at your business. As a part of this, you will receive:

- Assistance with tax credits
- 30, 60, 90 day check-ins
- Continued Wrap Around Support
- Periodic phone calls with managers
- Interview Scheduling for multiple hires

JOIN GREAT COMPANIES

- Divvy
- Walgreens
- Aramark
- Freedman Seating
- Fat Ice
- Food & Paper Supply
- Addus Healthcare